1 PM BRUNCH 14H00 ENSM
Children FORUM
 Organised in partnership with the leisure and culture department of Le Havre, this event aims to promote positive philosophy to 150 children from leisure centres in the town.
 The marine spirit is positive, open-minded, unified and deeply respectful of the environment. The respect, preservation and knowledge of one's environment and port heritage will be the main focuses of this event.

Throughout the afternoon, there will be workshops, discussions and speed-dating exercises between company representatives and students in order to help students tackle the world of work. This could be in the form of deciding what to specialise in at university, learning to know themselves and present themselves better, but also finding short-, medium-, or long-term jobs and internships.
